3                   ---oo---

4                   (Defendant present, out of custody.)

5                   (Proceedings were heard out of the presence of the jury.)

6                  THE COURT: We have been advised that the jury has
7                  reached a verdict.

8                  Do you want me to offer them the opportunity to speak to 9                  you afterwards? You do?

10                 MR. SHEPARD: We do, Your Honor. Thank you.

11                 THE COURT: All right.

12                 MR. SHEPARD: And in the event there are any
13                  convictions, we would ask you to poll the jury, please.

14                 THE COURT: I will do that.

15                 What I tell them, just so that you know, is I say it's 16                  totally up to them whether or not they come back. I ask you to 17                  stay in the courtroom. I thank them back there and then they 18                  can either come back through the courtroom or they can -- well,
19                  it's up to them.

20                 MR. SHEPARD: That's fine. Thank you, Your Honor.

21                 THE COURT: Okay.

22                 (Proceedings were heard in the presence of the jury.)

23                 THE COURT: The jury is present.

24                 Ms. Hancock, I was advised the jury has reached a verdict.

25                 Is that correct?

1           JUROR NUMBER 9: Yes, we have.

2           THE COURT: I'm going to ask you to hand it to

3 Ms. Lew.

5           THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: And Juror Number 12, is this
6 your verdict?

7           JUROR NUMBER 12: Yes.

8           THE COURT: Members of the jury, first of all, let me
9 thank you again. It's been a long process, several weeks. You
10 were an amazingly diligent jury. Came on time. Permitted all
11 of us to get this case presented to you in an efficient way.
12 You've done your duty.

13           In this day and age, sometimes there aren't many
14 opportunities to just do pure public service. We're so
15 fractured these days. But the one thing that does remain as 16 pretty much a pure instance of public service is jury duty.
17 And you all come in. You don't have any axe to grind. You
18 don't know the people involved. And you put your life aside
19 and you diligently come to a judgment and work together, and I
20 don't want to be corny about it, but it's still pretty
21 inspiring to me, even though I've done this for a long time.
22 So you have the thanks of all of us for the work you've done.

23           Let me just -- I suspect many of you may be wondering, now
24 that the case has been concluded, you may have some questions
25 about confidentiality of the proceedings. Many times, jurors

PROCEEDINGS

1 will ask are they at liberty now to discuss the case with
2 anyone after all those times I told you you couldn't.

3 Now that the case is over, you are free to discuss it with
4 any person you choose. By the same token, however, I would
5 advise you that you're under no obligation whatsoever to do so.
6 It is totally up to you.

7 If you do decide to discuss the case with anyone, I would
8 suggest you treat it with a degree of solemnity in that
9 whatever you do decide to say, you would be willing to say in 10 the presence of the other jurors or under oath here in open
11 court in the presence of all the parties.

12 As always, bear in mind, if you do decide to discuss the 13 case, that the other jurors fully and freely stated their
14 opinions with the understanding they were being expressed in 15 confidence. Please respect the privacy of the views of the 16 other jurors.

17 So the lawyers have asked me to make available to you, if 18 any of you are so inclined, the opportunity to come back and 19 speak with them in the courtroom. Lawyers often benefit from 20 hearing how the case was received and the presentations and the 21 like. It's totally up to you. And what I tell the jurors is I
22 want to go back and thank you, and then you have the choice.
23 You either walk out the door, or you can come back through the 24 courtroom. And I've told the lawyers they should stay in the 25 courtroom. And then if there are any of you that would like to

PROCEEDINGS

1 come and speak with them, I know they would appreciate it.
2 They will be here.

3 So with that, any reason why the jury may not be
4 discharged at this time?

5 MR. HIGHSMITH: No, Your Honor.

6 MR. SHEPARD: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Very well.

8 Members of the jury, you are now discharged.

9 (The jury was dismissed from duty.)

10 (Proceedings were heard out of the presence of the jury.)

11 MR. HIGHSMITH: Your Honor, may I make one motion?

12 I'd like to request a 30-day extension of our requirement
13 to file all of the exhibits in the case on the public docket so
14 that we can scrub them and redact as necessary.

15 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine.

16 MR. HIGHSMITH: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Grant your motion.

18 (Proceedings adjourned at 3:48 p.m.)
